Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Educating our youth to their fullest potential is the principal goal of South Dakota schools; and,

Whereas, Gifted, talented, and creative students have special needs for enrichment activities in academics, the arts, leadership, and skill development beyond those provided in our regular school programs; and,

Whereas, The university and college environments in South Dakota offer rich sources of educational enrichment opportunities; and,

Whereas, The University of South Dakota at Vermillion has established educational leadership training programs through the School of Education for the education of gifted and talented students; and,

Whereas, This year celebrates the 28th Annual South Dakota Governor's Camp for the Gifted Week, July 24-29, 2011; and,

Whereas, The theme for this year's camp is "Refuse to be average. Let your heart soar as high as it will." [A.W. Tozer]; and,

Whereas, The University of South Dakota has established a camp for gifted students to offer its resources to young South Dakotans:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 24-29, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I further extend my appreciation to parents, school faculties, and members of South Dakota's communities who are giving freely of their time, talents, and resources in order to assure the success of the education of one of our most valuable resources–our gifted and talented students.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State
